MASFA Dinner Meetings – Get Yourself Connected

Thursday, September 24, 2015, 5 – 8 pm. Our dinner meeting is the best place in the Northern Virginia, Washington and Baltimore region to network with people in the cold-formed steel industry: Contractors, suppliers, manufacturers, and designers are always part of the mix. Our dinners provide you the opportunity to:

- 1) Network with industry colleagues during our cocktail hour.
- 2) Learn about important industry topics (many of which include continuing education credits) from various industry experts.

Topic: LEED, EPD and QMS...What Does It All Mean to the Specifier and Contractor

1.0 PDH

Speakers: Andrew DeRenzis, PE – Structural Engineer
Adam Shoemaker – Code Development Manager, ClarkDietrich

Continuing Education Credits Available: 1.0 Engineering PDH Credits

Agenda Highlights: There is a lot more to the manufacturing process of cold-formed steel framing than most architects, engineers and contractors recognize. New LEED regulations and new industry association quality control procedures impose issues that are starting to be felt by, and need to be understood by, the specifiers and users of the product.

Changes in LEED v4

- Review of the changes
- Materials and Resources category—no longer just recycled content and regional materials
- EPD- what is it and what does it mean for your projects?
- Other standards- Living Building Challenge and RoHS

Quality Management system (QMS)

- Ever increasing emphasis of quality and consistency
- Third party certification programs for CFS
- How it affects your projects
- Traceability and complaint resolution
